Senior Sexpert Joan Price Covers All the Bases in Naked at Our Age: Talking Out Loud About Senior Sex

One of the biggest myths around is that all sexual activity comes to a halt after age fifty.

Author and senior sexpert Joan Price is determined to show seniors—and the world—that they can have a full, fabulous sex life no matter what their age.

Naked at Our Age: Talking Out Loud About Senior Sex (Seal Press / June 2011 / $16.95) is Price's candid, straight-talking take on senior sexuality—with all its ups and downs. The book openly covers the challenges and disappointments, as well as the delights and surprises, of later-life sex. Price gives people over fifty a voice in Naked at Our Age: Throughout, seniors tell stories of their past and present sex lives, ask questions, and get straightforward advice and information from experts like Carol Queen and Betty Dodson.

No topic related to later-life sexuality is off-limits. Price covers everything from the physical to the emotional, including:

- Surviving divorce and breakups
- Erectile dysfunction, both from a woman's and a man's viewpoint
- Entering the dating game later in life
- Sex after losing a life partner
- When sex hurts: dealing with vulvar and vaginal pain
- Sex toys for seniors

In Naked at Our Age, women and men—coupled and single, straight and gay—talk candidly about how their sex lives and relationships have changed with age, and how they see themselves and their partners. For seniors who are having unsatisfying sex (or no sex at all), Price offers advice and personal stories, as well as tips from sex therapists, health professionals, counselors, sex educators, and other knowledgeable experts.

Naked at Our Age is an important resource and source of support for seniors interested in enjoying their sexuality. Price covers all the bases in this exploration of intimacy in the golden age of life.
